

Bill Bieda

Bill entered the financial services industry in 1974 after finishing his formal education at University of Nebraska at Omaha. He graduated with a degree in History and Economics.

His primary concentration has been retirement and estate succession consulting, working with high net worth families and owners of family and closely held businesses.

Bill has specialized in designing and administering tax favorable retirement plans for key executives. His services include stock option plans, succession planning, and advanced charitable giving.

Bill Bieda

Affiliate

c. 301.332.2341 ● f. 949.900.0247

williambieda@aol.com