Christyna is an Insurance Strategist. She prides herself on speaking the language of finance and the impacts of financial strength through entrepreneurship and legacy planning.

She started her career in Human Resources developing her keen insight to what happens when we wander off the path of financial security and the true impact it can have on families for generations. Her experience was amplified with the loss of her mother, three months after the birth of her first child as a newlywed, which provided firsthand knowledge of the phases of the financial life people experience.

In an effort to better understand her current situation, she went into the Financial Services industry, which provided a natural pathway and further strengthened her relationship building and business development skills, naturally allowing her to use this knowledge with each client, be they individuals or businesses.

Now armed with over 10 years of firsthand experience of what a proper financial plan and correctly executed insurance strategies can do for a family or business owner, Christyna has established herself as a sought-after speaker on the subject of financial readiness. She uses a team approach to bring a unique experience and style to meet the needs of her clients, beginning with taking the time to truly understand her clients' needs and how to effectively put those needs first.

Christyna is a mother of two, business owner, and passionate lover of community service and education. She gives back by teach financial literacy to those getting themselves back on track after hardships; from divorce to homelessness. The motto she lives by is “walking you through Life”!!
